

LORDSHIP PRAYER

Lord Jesus, I confess that I have sinned and wanted my own way. I acknowledge that You created me and that I can do nothing without You. I thank You for dying on the cross for me and I confess You as my Saviour. I invite You now to be Lord of every area of my life:

- Lord of my spirit and my relationship with You
- Lord of my spiritual awareness and worship
- Lord of my mind, my attitudes, my beliefs, my imagination, my understanding, my memories, my dreams, all my thoughts and my desires
- Lord of my emotions, my expression of my feelings and all my reactions
- Lord of my will and all my decisions
- Lord of habits, my coping mechanisms and my behavior cycles
- Lord of my body, my physical health, my exercise, my diet, my rest, my health care, my appearance and all my behavior
- Lord of my eyes and what I look upon and for how long and when
- Lord of my ears and everything I listen to and for how long and when
- Lord of my mouth and what I speak (fewer questions, fewer comments, more appreciative words; “quick to listen, slow to speak” James 1:19; “take control of what I say, O Lord, and guard my lips” Psalm 141: 3
- Lord of my hands and all that I do
- Lord of my feet and everywhere I go
- Lord of my sexuality and its expression
- Lord of my time, my work, my ministry, my prayers, my pleasure, my home, my family, my possessions, my perceived needs, my safety, my finances, my plans, my ambitions, my future and all my relationships

Thank You Jesus, that your blood was shed that I might be set free and changed, and that You rose again and sent Holy Spirit that I might learn to walk in joy and peace and victory over sin and Satan. Please grant me daily intimate fellowship with You. I desire to know and clearly hear Your voice and walk in the path You have for me.

In Jesus Name, Amen
